Workshop aims:

- To review issues involved in teaching reading, writing, grammar and vocabulary
- To plan teaching materials and activities for teaching reading, writing, grammar and vocabulary

Structure of the workshops:

- Four sessions, each of three hours duration
- Each session will consist of,
  - a) input session, based on a lecture and discussion of the assigned readings
  - b) planning session, during which participants will complete one or more tasks, in small groups
  - c) demonstration or presentation by groups
  - d) comments and suggestions from participants.

Readings:

Participants are asked to read the relevant chapter from Key Issues in Language Teaching (Jack. C Richards, forthcoming – Cambridge University Press 2015) prior to attending the workshop.
